University of Iowa Athletic Department Mission Statement

The mission of the Department of Athletics is to provide the administrative and coaching support, facilities, resources, and equipment necessary for student athletes to graduate from The University of Iowa while participating in broad based championship caliber athletic competition. The overall well-being of the participant and integrity of the program will be paramount in all that we do.

From the outside looking in, some might say that 2010 is a rebuilding year for Iowa softball. After all, the Hawkeyes graduated seven seniors, including one of the most decorated pitchers to ever wear the Black and Gold. But Head Coach Gayle Blevins doesn't like the term "rebuilding," especially with the amount of talent on the 2010 Hawkeye roster.

Blevins returns nine letterwinners and five starters from last year's team that went 42-16 and made an appearance in the NCAA Tournament for the 16th time in school history. Add a talented group of newcomers to the experienced returnees, and Blevins believes the combination could equal success.

"For some, it would be easy to think of this year as rebuilding," Blevins said. "We do not choose to think that way. We have a lot of talent on this team. We are confident that we can develop into a contender for the Big Ten title this season."

Blevins, who has always been a fan of coaching the mental game, believes team attitude will be extremely important this season.

"We definitely lost some talented players to graduation," Blevins said. "However, this is nothing new to our program. We graduate quality players every year. Our goal is to contend for the Big Ten championship. We believe we have the leadership and the talent to do that."

The following is a position-by-position breakdown of the 2010 Iowa softball team.

Infield

New and familiar faces will be scattered around the Hawkeye infield in 2010.

One of the familiar faces will be senior Katie Brown at first base. Brown started and played all 58 games last season at first. She was second on the team in batting average (.346) and home runs (7). What's more impressive is Brown's .994 fielding percentage a year ago. The Spirit Lake, IA, native committed just two errors while registering 338 putouts and 12 assists. Brown was a second team all-Big Ten selection in 2009, and Blevins is looking for big things from her senior tri-captain.

"Katie is rock solid at first base," Blevins said. "We have incredible confidence in all parts of her game. Katie is one of our tri-captains and a tremendous leader. We are looking for Katie to have a great senior season."

Junior college transfer Stephanie Ochoa could also see action at first base. Ochoa played two seasons at Iowa Lakes Community College, and attended the same California high school as former Hawkeye all-American Brittany Weil (Pacifica). Ochoa was a two-time all-NFCA and all-NJCAA pick, and will bring offensive presence to the Hawkeye lineup.

"Stephanie put up some impressive numbers at Iowa Lakes for Coach Mike Bosch," Blevins said. "She is a solid hitter, and we look for her to be a big contributor to our offensive lineup."

Junior Chelsey Carmody will begin her third season as Iowa's starting second baseman. Carmody played in 54 games at second last season, with 53 starts. She was third on the team with a .333 batting average, adding one home run, 10 doubles and 18 RBI. Carmody is a tri-captain for the Hawkeyes.

"Chelsey is a stellar all-around player and plays an outstanding second base," Blevins said. "It's always nice to have solid experience up the middle, defensively. Chelsey provides talent and leadership to lead the infield and our hitting."

Freshman Jordan Goschie is also in the rotation at second base. Goschie is from Eugene, OR, and was a three-time all state and all-league selection.

The Hawkeyes will have to replace three-year starter Erin Riemersma at shortstop. They'll look to sophomore Katie Keim to fill the role. Keim played in all 58 games last season, with 43 starts at third base. She was a third team all-Big Ten pick. Blevins believes Keim has transitioned well to shortstop, and will gain more confidence as the season progresses.

"It's a big switch moving from a corner infield position to shortstop," Blevins said. "Katie has adjusted well, and we've been impressed with her abilities. She has a great glove and solid arm, which will be a good addition to our middle."

One new face who will return to the infield and play third base this season is senior Lindsey Digmann. As a freshman, Digmann started 27 games at second base, before moving to left field as a sophomore. Digmann battled a hand injury last season, but still played in 27 contests, all in the outfield. Blevins has pulled Digmann back to the infield, in order to get the most productive lineup on the field.

"Lindsey spent a lot of time training at third during the off-season and she has come a long way." Blevins said. "Lindsey has great quickness and instincts. The more repetitions she can get at third, the more comfortable she we will become. I love her attitude and daily work ethic."

Freshman Sam Valentine is also an option at third base. Valentine was a two-time all-state selection at English Valleys High School.

Outfield

A solid mix of freshmen, sophomores and juniors will patrol the Hawkeye outfield this season.

Junior Jenny Schuelke will be the starter in left field. As a sophomore, Schuelke recorded 19 starts, primarily as the designated player. With Digmann's switch to the infield, Blevins is looking for Schuelke to hold down the position.

"Jenny has improved dramatically, especially this year," Blevins said. "Over the past two seasons, she has shown what she can do, offensively. Now, we need her to step up and be a leader in the outfield. Jenny is more than capable of filling that role."

Freshman Ashley Akers, from nearby Tiffin, IA, could also see time in left or center field. Akers is a product of the successful Clear Creek Amana High School softball program, and was a first team elite all-state, all-district and all-conference selection as a senior.

Another Clear Creek Amana graduate will be Iowa's starter in right field. The speedy Taylor Leichsenring returns for her senior season. Blevins is hoping to have Leichsenring provide an offensive spark to the lineup.

"Taylor is a tremendous weapon on offense," Blevins said. "She has the ability to reach base every at-bat. We need her speed and quickness in our lineup. Her speed will be a consistent option for us in the outfield."

Also battling for time in right field is freshman Ashley Vanderloo. Another native Iowan, Vanderloo hails from Sioux City, IA, and prepped at Sioux City East. She was a four-time all-state selection, including elite team honors as a junior and senior.

The Hawkeyes will most likely have a new face in center field this season. Freshman Johnnie Dowling is listed as the team's No. 1 centerfielder, and has been impressive defensively in pre-season workouts. Dowling is from Des Moines and attended West Des Moines Valley High School. She was a four-time all-state pick, including elite team status as a sophomore, junior and senior. Dowling spent the majority of her high school career in right field, but Blevins has been impressed with the freshman's ability to play center.

"Johnnie has the ability to be very special, defensively, for the Hawkeyes," Blevins said. "She covers so much territory and has a great arm. She knows she needs to work hard and keep improving. We believe this is exactly what she will do."

Pitching

Senior Amanda Zust, freshman Chelsea Lyon, and senior Katie Brown will shoulder the responsibility of replacing one of the most decorated pitchers in Hawkeye history in Brittany Weil. Weil graduated last season and was drafted by the Akron Racers of the National Professional Fastpitch league.

Zust has been a solid pitcher in Iowa's rotation for the past three seasons, and has helped the Hawkeye pitching staff rank seventh in the country in earned run average over the past two years. Last year, Zust finished 16-4 with a 1.89 ERA and collected 121 strikeouts to 68 walks. Zust tossed a five-inning no-hitter against South Dakota and committed only one fielding error in 66 chances.

"We are happy to have someone like Amanda in our pitching corp this year," Blevins said. "She brings experience and a great work ethic. We are very confident in her abilities. Amanda is the type of pitcher who relies on her defense, and, we have a very solid lineup behind her."

Lyon comes to Iowa City from Broken Arrow, OK, and was considered one of the top pitchers of her recruiting class. She earned numerous awards as a senior, including Louisville Slugger/NFCA High School first team all-region honors and third team all-America honors. She was the 2008-09 Oklahoma Gatorade Player of the Year and finished her high school career with a 75-8 record, 0.77 ERA and 550 strikeouts. Lyon is also an offensive weapon, batting .371 with 13 home runs as a prep.

"We continue to be impressed with Chelsea's development," Blevins said. "She is making great strides and we look for her to have a solid year. Chelsea and Amanda have contrasting styles, which is something we always like to have."

Another pitching option this year is senior Katie Brown. As a freshman, Brown tossed in eight innings with three strikeouts, but has not pitched since. Brown was a decorated pitcher at Spirit Lake High School, and Blevins says Katie can bring much desired depth to the circle.

"Katie's role may very well take on a whole new look this year," Blevins said. "Her pitching gives us the ability to create numerous offensive lineups. She has embraced the challenge and has worked hard to add this to her list of contributions to the team."

Catching

Sophomore Liz Watkins returns behind the plate, after having a breakout freshman campaign. Watkins was a third team all-Big Ten pick last year after starting 54 games, including the final 34 games. She finished second on the team with nine home runs and 45 RBI, and committed only one error for a .998 fielding percentage. Watkins burst on the scene during conference play on national television, when she hit a walk-off home run against Illinois. Blevins is looking for Watkins to repeat those types of performances as a sophomore. Watkins is one of the Hawkeye tri-captains this season.

"Liz has a solid presence behind the plate," Blevins said. "She is an intelligent player, and had a banner year as a freshman. Liz has continued her progress during the offseason. She will be looked to for many contributions, defensively and offensively."

Another junior college transfer, Sarah Spiering, is battling for time at catcher. Spiering is from Upper Burrell, PA, and attended Indian River Community College in Florida. While at Indian River, Spiering earned all-conference and all-state honors while leading her school to a conference championship in 2009.

"Sarah has made great strides since joining our program," Blevins said. "It's always fun to see a player change from the fall to the spring. Sarah provides us with another big bat. She will immediately strengthen our offensive lineup."

Senior Heidi Daumen will take reps at both catcher and first base. Daumen is a two-time recipient of the teams' Peg Augspurger Hawkeye Heart Award. Last season, Daumen played in 13 games and scored three runs.

"So many of Heidi's contributions never show up in the box score," Blevins said. "She knows that her contributions add to the success of the team. As a coach, you appreciate the ability of your athletes to embrace their roles and realize that there are many ways to contribute."

Gayle Blevins

Head Coach

As a head coach, Blevins has led her teams to seven Women's College World Series appearances (four at Iowa), won eight Big Ten titles (five at Iowa) been named both the Big Ten and National Coach of the Year, and has been inducted into both the Indiana University and NFCA Hall of Fame. Blevins enters the 2009 season as the Big Ten's winningest coach with 496 conference wins.

Blevins became Iowa's head coach in 1987 and immediately produced success. Just two years after Blevins took over a struggling program at Iowa, the Hawkeyes secured their first-ever Big Ten title and their first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance. The 1989 Hawkeyes finished the season ranked ninth in the nation, the first time an Iowa team had ever been nationally ranked.

Blevins built on that success and in 1990, the Hawkeyes won another Big Ten title and produced the school's first All-American in Diane Pohl.

The 1995 season proved to be an extraordinary one for Blevins and her Hawkeye squad. After receiving an at-large big to the NCAA Tournament, the Hawkeyes became the nation's Cinderella story. Iowa advanced to its first NCAA Women's College World Series after defeating No. 8 Cal State Sacramento, 3-0, and twice beating No. 5 Fresno State (1-0 and 2-1 in nine innings). At the World Series, the Hawkeyes lost to No. 2 UCLA but rallied back to beat No. 9 Michigan, 9-7 in 14 innings and No. 3 Cal State Fullerton, 6-5 in nine innings. Unfortunately, the Hawkeyes fell short in their quest for a national championship, losing to UCLA in the national semifinals.

The 1996 Hawkeyes paved their way to a second-consecutive appearance in the Women's College World Series by winning the Mideast Regional held in Iowa City. The Hawkeyes finished third in the nation after losing to eventual national champion Arizona.

After a 52-9 record and a No. 5 national ranking, the 1997 Hawkeyes made its third-consecutive appearance at the Women's College World Series. During the regular season, Iowa marched through the Big Ten schedule with a perfect 22-0 record, marking the first and only time in conference history that a Big Ten team has completed the conference schedule undefeated.

Iowa returned to Oklahoma City and the Women's College World Series for the fourth time in school history in 2001. Blevins guided the Hawkeyes to a 49-14 record and a Big Ten Tournament Championship.

The 2002 season marked another milestone for Coach Blevins. While competing in the National Invitational Softball Tournament, Iowa defeated eventual NCAA Champion California to give Blevins her 900th career NCAA Division I victory. She was just the fourth coach to reach that mark in NCAA Division I history.

In 2003, Blevins coached the Hawkeyes to both the Big Ten Regular Season and Tournament Championships, the first time an Iowa team had captured both in the same season. She also took the Hawkeyes to the Lincoln, NE, Regional Championship game.

Blevins eclipsed the 1,000 win mark during the 2004 season with a 9-1, six-inning victory over Coe College. With the historic win, Blevins became only the third Division I coach to reach 1,000 wins. The win was also her 700th at Iowa.

In 2005, Blevins led the Hawkeyes to their third 50-win season in school history and their sixth straight NCAA Tournament appearance, where they advanced to the Lincoln, NE, NCAA Regional Championship game.

The Hawkeyes finished 2006 with a 39-22 overall record and were selected as a host site for the 2006 NCAA Regional tournament.

Blevins reached the 1,100 win mark in 2007 with an 11-0 win over Howard in the season opener. The Hawkeyes finished with a 37-21 record including a 10-7 record in conference play, which was good enough for a fourth place finish.

Blevins led Iowa to both the Big Ten Tournament and NCAA Regional Championship game in 2008, finishing with a 42-20 overall record. The Hawkeyes were selected to host an NCAA Regional for the eighth time in school history, all under Blevins.

Blevins became the second winningest coach in NCAA softball history during the 2009 season, leading Iowa to a 42-16 overall record. She picked up win No. 1,219, to move into second place, with a 2-0 victory over Minnesota May 9. Blevins led the Hawkeyes to their 16th NCAA Tournament appearance as well.

Under her direction, Iowa has finished in the top three in the Big Ten Conference every year but four from 1989-2009 and in 1989, 1990, 1997, 2000 and 2003 her squads captured the Big Ten Conference title. A Blevins coached team has never finished lower than fifth in the conference.

Blevins was one of the first coaches in the country to effectively use the "slap style" hitting as an exciting offensive weapon. One of her student-athletes was the first-ever slapper chosen as a first team all-American in 1983. Blevins is one of the nations best at using the speed game.

Blevins came to the University of Iowa after a successful career at Indiana University, where she led the Hoosiers from 1980-87 and compiled an impressive 301-146 (.670) record. She led Indiana to the Women's College World Series three times where they finished third in 1986, fifth in 1983 and second in 1980, when the series was a part of the AIAW.

Blevins, a native of Dayton, OH, is a 1973 graduate of the University of Dayton. After graduating cum laude with a degree in health and physical education, she taught and coached at Dayton's Stebbins High School. Five years later she went on to Indiana University where she earned her master's degree in administration while serving as IU's assistant softball coach. She was named Indiana's head coach during the 1979-80 season. She moved to Iowa during the 1986-87 season and is only the third head softball coach in Hawkeye school history.

Current Iowa assistant coach Diane Stephenson, Coach Blevins, former assistant at Iowa Pam Lee and former player at Indiana Toni Gray celebrate after the milestone win.

Reaching Milestones:

On April 16, 2004, Head Coach Gayle Blevins became only the third softball coach in Division I history to record 1,000 career wins. The win was also Blevins' 700th win at the University of Iowa. The Hawkeyes defeated Coe College 9-1 in six innings to secure the win for Blevins.

Blevins recorded her 1,100th win after an 11-0, five inning win over Howard to open the 2007 season. She is one of only five coaches to have over 1,100 career wins in Division I history.

Michigan Head Coach Carol Hutchins presents a gift to Coach Blevins. Hutchins coached under Blevins at Indiana.

Coach Blevins talks to the media after recording her 1,000 career win.

Hall of Fame Head Coach:

Head Coach Gayle Blevins was inducted into the National Fastpitch Coaches Assocation Hall of Fame in 1999. Blevins is currently the third winningest coach in Division I history.

Blevins was also inducted into the Indiana University Hall of Fame in 2005 (below). Blevins started her illustrious coaching career with the Hoosiers and compiled a 301-146-2 record while guiding them to three College World Series apperances.

Shane Bouman

Pitching Coach
Third Season

Shane Bouman is in his third season as Iowa's pitching coach.

During his two seasons at Iowa, the Hawkeyes have recorded an 84-36 mark (.700 winning percentage), and his pitchers have a combined earned run average of 1.30. The Hawkeyes have also qualified for the NCAA Tournament the previous two seasons.

Bouman enjoyed a successful first season at Iowa in 2008, as the Hawkeye pitchers garnered top-25 national rankings in four categories. The Hawkeye pitching staff finished seventh nationally in team earned run average (1.23) and Brittany Weil finished the season ranked 22nd in individual wins (28) and 23rd in earned run average (1.22). Weil was also a four-time Big Ten Pitcher of the Week honoree, first-team NFCA all-Mideast Region selection, and second team all-Big Ten pick. Amanda Zust finished the season ranked 14th in hits allowed per seven innings (3.87) and 24th in earned run average (1.24).

In his second season at Iowa, Bouman once again guided the pitching staff to national recognition. Iowa's pitchers finished the 2009 season with a 1.38 ERA, which ranked seventh-nationally. In addition, Brittany Weil either broke or tied six school records during her senior campaign, and also tossed five no-hitters, including a perfect game. Bouman guided Weil to Iowa's first ever NFCA National Player of the Week honor, and she was also named Big Ten Pitcher of the Week four times. Bouman coached Weil to NFCA second team all-America honors, first team NFCA all-Midwest Region and first team all-Big Ten honors.

Before coming to Iowa, Bouman served as head coach at South Dakota State University for six seasons. He is the winningest coach in SDSU school history. Bouman also guided nine players to Division I All-Independent teams, seven players to Division I All-Academic teams, and an ESPN Academic All-American honoree. During Bouman's tenure, the Jackrabbits set school records for career home runs, stolen bases, RBI, and sacrifices.

Aside from coaching, Bouman is also an accomplished softball pitcher. He is a four-time Amateur Softball Association (ASA) All-American and a two-time North American Fastpitch Association (NAFA) All-American. Bouman led five teams to ASA National Championships and competed in nine International Softball Congress World Tournaments, placing third in 1995, and fifth in both 1996 and 1997.

Bouman graduated from South Dakota State in 1992 and was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter for the Jackrabbit football team. As a quarterback, Bouman earned All-North Central Conference honors in 1991 after leading the Jackrabbits to a 7-3 record. Bouman finished his career with a 100.72 quarterback efficiency rating. His brother, Todd Bouman, is an 11-year veteran quarterback in the NFL.

Bouman has a daughter, Bradee (9).

Diane Stephenson

Assistant Coach
Second Season
Indiana/1982

Diane Stephenson is in her second season as an assistant coach at the University of Iowa. Stephenson is also the team's recruiting coordinator.

In her first season at Iowa, Stephenson helped guide the Hawkeyes to a 42-16 overall mark, and a 13-7 record in Big Ten play. Iowa also qualified for the NCAA Tournament in Stephenson's first year on staff.

Stephenson, who serves as Iowa's hitting coach and instruct the Hawkeye catchers, is no stranger to Blevins or Iowa softball. She served as an assistant at Indiana from 1983-87 under Blevins during the most successful era in Hoosier softball history. The duo helped lead Indiana to two Big Ten championships (1983 and 1986), two NCAA Midwest Regional championships (1983 and 1986) and three NCAA Women's College World Series berths (1980, 1983 and 1986).

Stephenson was then picked to replace Blevins as Indiana's head coach and held the position from 1987-2002. She was named both the Big Ten and Midwest Region Coach of the Year in 1996 after leading the Hoosiers to their third Big Ten championship in school history. She led Indiana to two of its five NCAA Tournament appearances (1994 and 1996), while coaching five all-Americans and 18 first team all-Big Ten selections. She also coached former Iowa Associate Head Coach Michelle Venturella from 1992-95.

From 2003-07, Stephenson served as an assistant principal, athletic director and teacher at St. Charles School in Bloomington, IN. She has also been a private consultant and guest lecturer since 2002, providing private pitching and hitting instruction to student-athletes, including camps and clinics at Michigan, Iowa and Mississippi State.

Stephenson received her degree in physical education in 1982 and her masters in athletic administration in 1989, both from Indiana University. Stephenson also enjoyed a successful softball career as a Hoosier. She was the first female student-athlete to receive a full athletic scholarship at Indiana and was also the school's first softball all-American, earning the honor in 1981. She led the Hoosiers to a Big Ten championship in 1978 and the team made back-to-back appearances in the AIAW College World Series in 1979-80, finishing fifth and national runner-up, respectively. Blevins coached Stephenson at Indiana during the 1980 and 1981 seasons.

"I am thankful for the opportunity Coach Blevins and the University of Iowa have given to me to be part of Hawkeye Softball. The rich tradition Coach Blevins has established here is truly special. Being a part of the Big Ten Conference, alongside the unique atmosphere created by the University of Iowa, provides a great place to compete for championships. It's an exciting time to be a part of Hawkeye Softball."

-Pitching Coach Shane Bouman

"Why Iowa? Easy. I was able to have the chance to work with one of the top master minds in the game. Coach Blevins is an icon in the sport of softball. To have the opportunity to work with Coach Blevins and the University of Iowa Athletic Department is one I couldn't pass up. The daily ins and outs of Iowa softball are so important for my professional growth. In the coaching profession, you must have a passion for the staff, the administration, the student-athlete and the university. I am so proud to be a part of the Hawkeye family! It is truly a family.

-Assistant Coach Diane Stephenson

"The University of Iowa offers young women a wonderful environment to achieve excellence, both academically and athletically. Being a student-athlete within the Iowa softball program only enhances that opportunity. Coach Gayle Blevins has inspired and supported literally hundreds of young women to dream, and to become their own visions of success. At Iowa, parents can be assured that their daughters will receive outstanding coaching on the field, and outstanding leadership for life. My belief in this institution, in this program, and in Coach Blevins' ideals continues to inspire me as a long-time staff member who is closely involved."

-23-Year Athletic Trainer Faye Thompson

"Playing collegiate softball has always been my dream and the University Iowa offers me a great education and an opportunity to play for a renowned softball program. The coaching staff and players are like family. With this combination, it was an easy decision. Iowa is the place for me."

-Liz Watkins
Sophomore
Taylor Ridge, IL

"Growing up, I was surrounded by Hawkeye fans, and one day hoped to become one myself. I knew the U of I possessed a high academic standard, a sense of comfort through friends and coaches, and also had an energetic atmosphere which I wanted to be a part of. My vision of becoming a collegiate softball player only seemed right when I pictured myself wearing Black and Gold and had IOWA across my shirt. That's when I knew Iowa was perfect for me."

-Johnnie Dowling
Freshman
Des Moines, IA

"I was drawn to the University of Iowa because I had an opportunity to receive a high quality education and also compete in the Big Ten and for a national championship. Being from Iowa, I always dreamed of being a Hawkeye and to wear the Black and Gold. Representing this state is a dream come true."

-Katie Brown

Hawkeyes Continue to Make Their Mark

"The University of Iowa is truly a unique place in that no matter how far you travel to come to school, it quickly becomes the place you call home. The support that comes from the community and the athletic department is something to be admired and commended. They embrace you like family and you instantly feel as though you belong to something great. I didn't want to lose that feeling, so after college, I took a job working for the University of Iowa Athletic Department as a graphic designer. I still get to be a part of the Hawkeye Family everyday!"

-Mindy Heidgerken
B.A. - Journalism and Mass Communications
B.F.A - Graphic Design, 2007

"It's hard to believe, but I still get emotional thinking about my years at Iowa. The decision to go to Iowa was an easy one. There was a commitment to excellence on the field and in the classroom. The success our teams enjoyed in those years was just the beginning. Everything I learned while playing at Iowa... teamwork, dedication and time management... I use in my professional and personal life today. I am so proud to see each Iowa team bring their own unique talent to the field while possessing the same character that defines Iowa: hardworking, committed and enthusiastic. Many programs claim to be a family, but Iowa softball is. Once a Hawkeye, always a Hawkeye."

The Home of the Hawkeyes:

Pearl Field was dedicated on October 2, 1999 in honor of the late Robert L. Pearl, who was the first African-American baseball player at the University of Iowa and a longtime supporter of Hawkeye softball.

Pearl Field was completely rennovated after the flood of 2008 destroyed nearly the entire complex. The stadium now includes a new, state-of-the-art locker room with spacious player lockers, a large, flat-screen plasma television with video equipment for film watching, new team room, new concession and restroom areas and a new batting cage/bullpen area.

What Others Say About Pearl Field:

"I have always thought Pearl Field is one of the best softball facilities in the Midwest. It has many wonderful assets that make it one of the best in the Midwest, but there are two that really set it apart from others: the visiting team warm up and practice facilities are spacious and the people that maintain and run the facility! They are knowledgeable and courteous. The facilities staff truly make the biggest difference!"

- Donna Martin, Former Northern Illinois Head Softball Coach
2008 NCAA Softball Regional Representative

"From a broadcast perspective, it has everything you could ask for: good sight lines, a new spacious press box, and helpful people to make it a pleasurable experience."

- Justin Kutcher, Big Ten Network Announcer

Hawkeye Recreation Building Locker Room
During off-season and pre-season workouts, the Hawkeyes make their home at the UI Recreation Building, connected to the indoor practice facility known as "The Bubble."

Iowa's locker room was completely renovated during the 2007-08 year, and now includes more spacious lockers and shower areas. The new locker room also includes a team meeting area, complete with leather couches and flat screen televisions for film work.

Pearl Field Locker Room

Iowa's locker room at Pearl Field (pictured to the right), was also renovated after the Flood of 2008. The new gameday locker room includes state-of-the-art lockers, audio and visual equipment, along with shower spaces.

The locker room is connected to the dugout, giving the Hawkeyes a great meeting space before games and between doubleheaders.

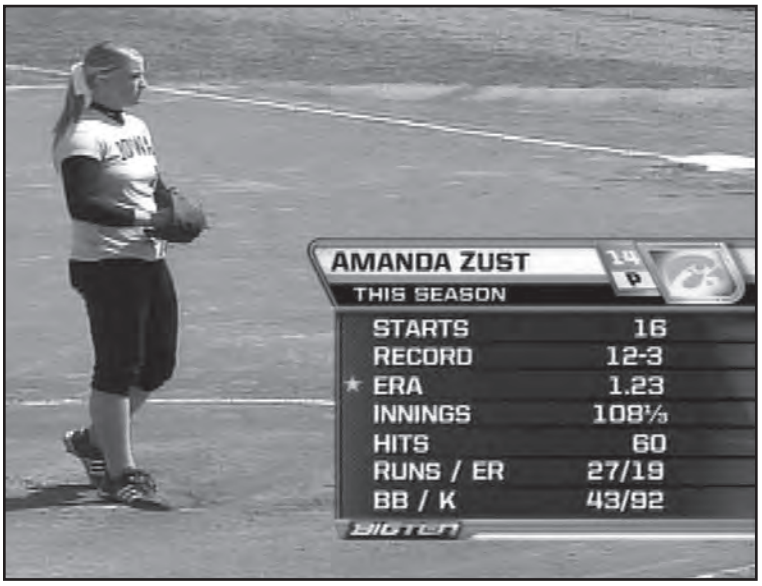
About the Big Ten Network:

In June 2006, the Big Ten announced the creation of the Big Ten Network, a national network devoted to Big Ten athletic and academic programs. Available to all cable and satellite providers nationwide, with most programs offered in stunning high-definition television (HDTV), the network allows fans to see their home teams, regardless of where they live.

The Network currently has agreements with more than 250 affiliates, including AT&T U-Verse, Charter, Comcast, Cox (Cleveland), DirecTV, DISH Network, Insight, Mediacom, Time Warner Cable and Verizon FiOS. Available to approximately 70 million households nationwide, the Big Ten Network is the first nationally distributed network dedicated to covering one of the premier collegiate conferences in the country. With approximately 350 live events, and nearly all of them in high definition, the network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country, allowing them to see their favorite teams, regardless of where they live.



The Iowa softball team was seen nationwide in high-definition on the Big Ten Network four times during the 2009 season.

Pearl Field's spacious press box and great site lines make it a great place for Big Ten Network softball.

The Big Ten Network televised two games at Pearl Field last season.

Hawkeyesports.com

Media and fans can obtain a wealth of up-to-date information about the Hawkeyes on the official web site of the University of Iowa -- hawkeyesports.com. Live stats, box scores, play-by-play, photo galleries, coach and bio information, videos, player blogs and more can be found on the web site.

Futhermore, hawkeyesports.com has a fresh look after the site was re-designed and re-launched this past September. The new and improved site has more information and video/audio for the diehard Hawkeye fan.

Hawkeye All-Access

Nearly all of Iowa's games can be heard live and archived over the internet via "Hawkeye All-Access" subscription service. Rob Brooks, the voice of Iowa softball, is entering his third year as the Hawkeye play-by-play commentator. Brooks also serves as the sideline reporter for all Hawkeye football games.

In addition, select Hawkeye softball games can be heard on local radio stations like AM-800 KXIC and AM-1630 KCJJ, both located in Iowa City.

Softball helped Iowa's Brittany Weil with her recovery process.
It sometimes takes a life-altering event to get some perspective. Iowa pitcher Brittany Weil understands that now. The junior could have been killed by a line drive last season, but her recovery and subsequent return to the circle has changed her life for the better. Graham Hays

Brittany Weil and the Hawkeyes were featured on the front page of espnu.com in 2008.

Rob Brooks, shown here interviewing Iowa football Head Coach Kirk Ferentz, enters his fourth season as the voice of Iowa softball. Brooks is also the sideline reporter for Iowa football games heard on the Hawkeye Radio Network.

Katie Brown answers questions at the team's annual "Meet the Hawks" night. Members of the media cover Iowa softball on a regular basis.

The Hawkeye Visions Endowment Program: Investing in a Winning Future is an ongoing campaign which seeks to create permanently endowed scholarships for all teams associated with UI Athletics. The program currently includes approximately 124 fully-endowed scholarships, 57-partially endowed-scholarships, 25 scholarships that have been initiated and are being built and 35 future scholarship gifts.

The following scholarships are fully-endowed awards which are currently dedicated to the Iowa softball program. Over the life of the investment, the market appreciation added year after year supports our scholarship payout. Endowments of $200,000 or more allow a donor to designate a sport. Gifts of $400,000 or more allow for designation of a position within that sport. Other sport scholarships, partial scholarships, awards being developed and/or planned are not included in this list.

Endowments may be funded via cash, appreciated securities or planned gifts. Endowments may also be established on a pledge payment schedule.

"We are one of the few programs in the nation that have people interested in endowing scholarships for softball. We feel very honored to say this. Many schools have numerous scholarships provided for football and basketball, but Iowa has people who feel as strongly about softball. This is a unique circumstance. I am grateful to people such as Peg and John Slusher, the Bill and Kay Pitlik, Don Heineking and members of the Polk County I-Club for thinking of us. It is wonderful to feel valued by your fans. We are at Iowa."

-Head Coach Gayle Blevins

John and Peg Slusher Softball Catcher's Scholarship

In 1999, John and Peg Slusher funded the first fully-endowed position scholarship in women's athletics at Iowa. Two of the biggest fans the Hawkeyes have, the Slushers are regular fixtures in the stands at Pearl Field. They also have season tickets for football, men's and women's basketball, and wrestling. Both John and Peg are former employees of Rockwell Collins in Cedar Rapids.

Donald W. and Marilyn Heineking Softball Scholarship

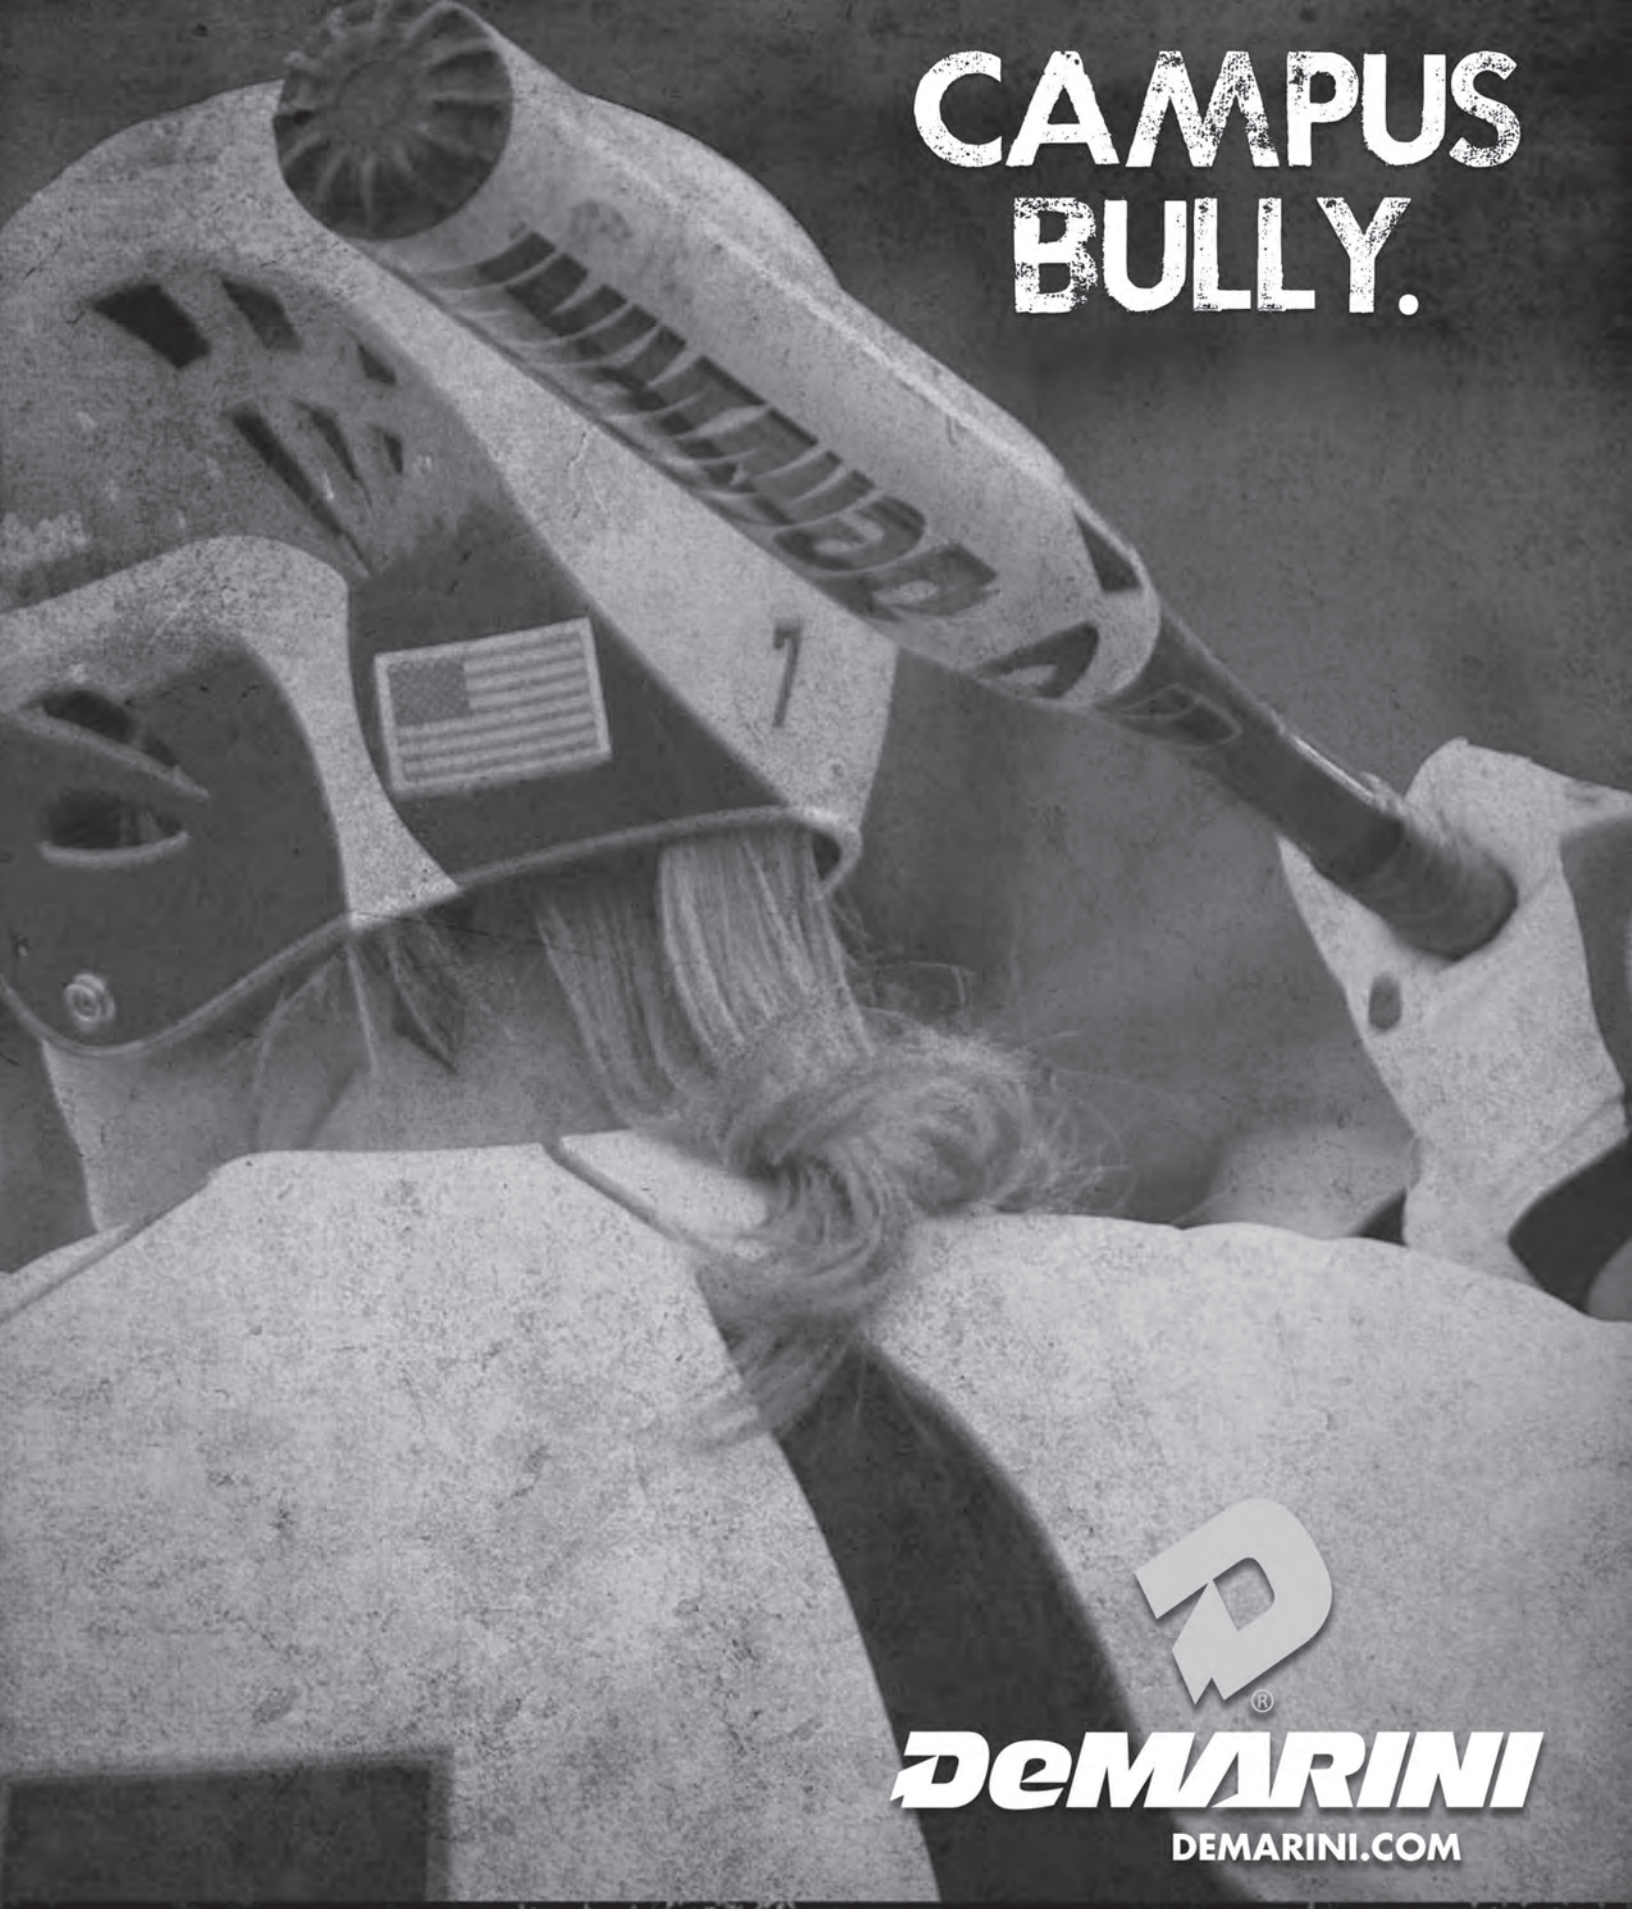
The Heineking Softball Scholarship was established in 2004, along with a baseball scholarship. Previously, the couple established scholarships in women's basketball, football, wrestling as well as a men's basketball manager's scholarship. Most recently, Don added scholarships in volleyball and men's track. Don is a 1958 UI business graduate and president of Security State Bank in Hubbard, Iowa. Don lives in Iowa City and is a member of the Presidents Club of the UI Foundation. Marilyn passed away in February of 2004.

William and Kay Pitlik Softball Scholarship

Bill and Kay Pitlik of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, established their endowed scholarship in 1996. Both are University of Iowa graduates, Kay in 1952 and Bill in 1953. The Pitliks are the former owners of the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company in Cedar Rapids. Kay is an avid Hawkeye fan and the couple have also endowed scholarships in football, women's basketball and wrestling. Bill passed away in December of 2008.

Polk County I-Club Scholarship

The Polk County I-club established their first scholarship in 1998 for the University of Iowa football team. Then, in 2003, the club added a second endowed scholarship for the UI softball program. Selection preference will be give to current Hawkeye softball players from Polk County high schools.



UNIVERSITY OF IOWA. POWERED BY DEMARINI.

Gary Barta
Director of Athletics

Gary Barta is in his fourth year as the director of intercollegiate athletics at the University of Iowa and his 23rd year in athletics administration, eager to build on the achievements and progress made in a challenging but rewarding 2008-09.

The Hawkeyes enjoyed a successful 2008-09 year competitively. Iowa finished the 2009 sports season ranked 45th nationally in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup with a school-record 474.30 – an improvement fueled by Iowa's victory over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl, the Hawkeyes' second straight Big Ten Conference and NCAA titles in wrestling, a third straight Big Ten Tournament title and a berth in the national semi-finals by the field hockey team, and NCAA Tournament or national championship participation by Iowa's women's basketball, women's cross country and indoor track, men's golf, gymnastics and softball programs.

Under Barta's leadership, Iowa's long-standing commitment to the academic pursuits of the more than 700 student-athletes who annually represent the Hawkeye intercollegiate athletics competition continues. According to graduation statistics distributed each fall by the NCAA, the class of student-athletes who entered Iowa at the start of the 2001-02 academic year had a graduation rate of 68 percent, a mark that compared very favorably to the 66 percent rate compiled by the overall student population at the University.

The 2008 Iowa football team tied for first in NCAA Graduation Success Rate (75 percent) among the 10 programs that have played in five or more January bowl games since the 2002 season. Iowa's 75 percent graduation success rate ranked third among teams in the 2008 final top 25.

The Hawkeye men's cross country, women's golf, and softball teams were also singled out by the NCAA for ranking in the top 10 percent among their peers in the NCAA's 2008 Academic Progress Rate (APR), a real-time look at a team's academic success each semester or quarter, by tracking the academic progress of each student-athlete. All 24 of Iowa's teams exceed NCAA APR standards and compare favorable to their peers in the Big Ten Conference and nationally.

Construction of new and renovation of existing facilities also remain high priorities for Iowa. The UI is working hard to reach its goal of breaking ground on a $47 million revitalization of Carver-Hawkeye Arena, a much-needed renovation that will greatly improve the practice, strength training and conditioning facilities for a myriad of Hawkeye sports programs, including, most notably, the men and women's basketball, volleyball and wrestling teams. The project will also provide locker room updates, team meeting facilities, and much needed office and meeting room space for more than 200 full-time coaches and staff. The enhancement project will also expand and improve the experience for fans.

The University of Iowa will complete construction of the $7 million P. Sue Beckwith Boathouse in fall 2009. This addition to the physical plant will come fast on the heels of a $3 million renovation of the portion of the UI Recreation Building used by Iowa's baseball, track and field, and cross country squads; the replacement of the drainage system for the playing field inside Kinnick Stadium and the installation of FieldTurf; and the reconstruction of Bob Pearl Field, home of Iowa's nationally ranked softball team, and Francis X. Cretzmeyer Track, Iowa's track facility.

In fall 2010, Barta will join leaders across campus in celebrating the opening of the $69 million Campus Wellness and Recreation Center, the new home of Iowa's men's and women's swimming and diving program.

The construction of the Ron and Margaret Kenyon Outdoor Practice Facility – a facility envied by many collegiate programs and NFL franchises – and the renovation of Kinnick Stadium were phases 1 and 2 of the master plan, respectively.

Barta has hired four head coaches since becoming Iowa's 11th director of athletics on Aug. 2, 2006 and all four have quickly built solid foundations for their respective programs.

Todd Lickliter's 2008-09 UI men's basketball team battled through one of the nation's toughest schedules to claim 15 victories with a roster dominated by underclassmen. The 2009 season will be the second for volleyball coach Sharon Dingman, who guided the Hawkeyes to win totals of 14 overall and six against Big Ten opponents, marks that were the best for Iowa in eight seasons.

Kelly Crawford and Mark Hankins have raised the bar for both of Iowa's golf programs. Crawford's women's team finished fifth at the 2009 Big Ten Conference Championship – the program's best finish in 14 seasons. Hankins' men's squad finished sixth at the 2009 league championship – just five strokes out of third place. The finish was the Hawkeyes' best in eight years and earned Iowa a spot in NCAA regional competition. The Hawkeyes finished fifth at NCAA Regionals, which garnered the Black and Gold their first NCAA Championships appearance since 1994. At the championships, Iowa placed 17th in the country.

As the director of athletics at the University of Wyoming for three years, seven different coaches were named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He also spearheaded a fund-raising effort that netted the Cowboy athletics program $11 million in private support and $11 million in matching state funds. Among other things, these funds allowed for significant stadium renovations and construction of a new indoor practice facility.

As the senior associate athletics director at the University of Washington, he directed the "Campaign for the Student-Athlete," was a participant in the design, construction and/or renovation of several athletic facilities, including Bank of America Arena and the Dempsey Indoor Practice Facility. During his time in Seattle, the Husky Athletics program generated nearly $100 million in private support. In addition to almost doubling the amount of annual private contributions received by Washington, Barta also managed the department's external relations. His responsibilities expanded over time to include hiring of coaching and administrative staff and coordinating the schedule for the Huskies' men's basketball program.

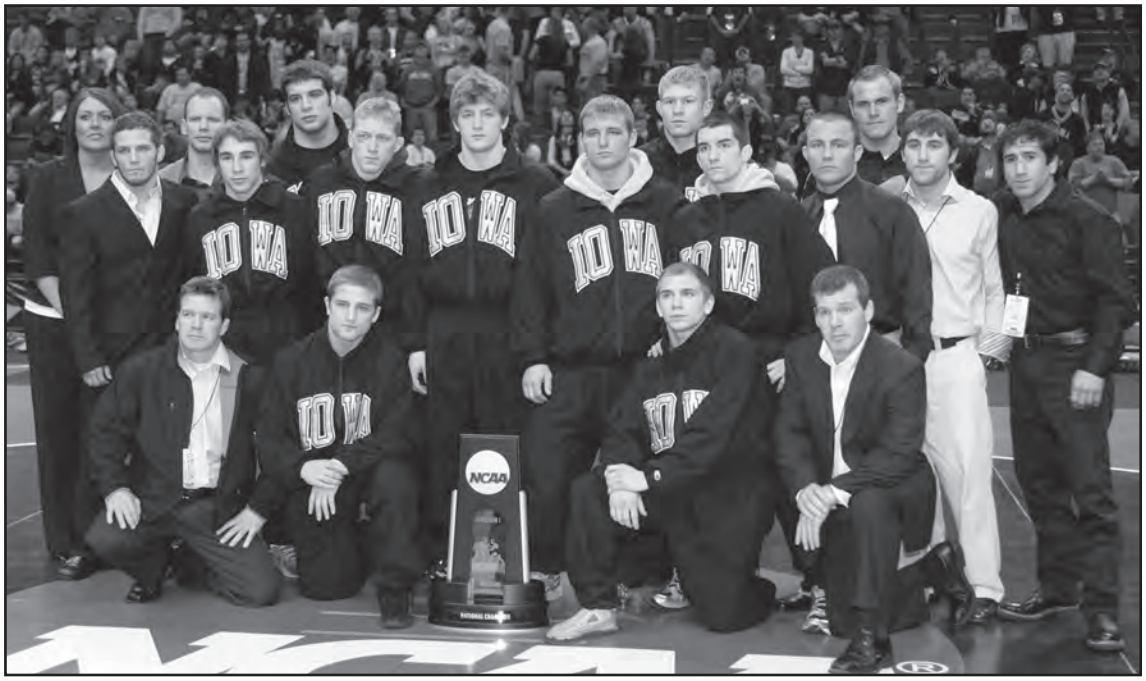
The roots of his development experience extend to his first two positions: director of athletics development and external relations at the University of Northern Iowa and director of development at his alma mater, North Dakota State University.

Barta earned a Bachelor of Science degree in mass communication and broadcast journalism from NDSU in 1987. He was an option quarterback for Bison football squads that won the NCAA Division II national championship in 1983, 1985 and 1986.

Barta, and his wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (11) and a daughter, Madison (9). He was born September 4, 1963, in Minneapolis, MN.

The UI Department of Athletics is under the direction of Gary Barta and is regarded as one of the top intercollegiate programs in the nation. This past season, the Hawkeyes enjoyed unprecedented success. Iowa scored a school-record number of points in the annual Learfield Sports Directors' Cup, a national program that honors institutions offering broad-based intercollegiate athletics programs that achieve at the highest level competitively.

Ten different UI teams accumulated a record total of 474.30 points as a result of their participation in postseason competition during the 2008-09 athletics year. Iowa's point total resulted in the Hawkeyes finishing in 45th place in the Directors' Cup standings for the NCAA Division I category that includes 271 participating institutions.



The 2009 Iowa Hawkeye wrestling team won its 22nd NCAA championship along with its 33rd Big Ten title. Iowa crowned five all-Americans en route to its second-straight national and league championships.

The support of their efforts and attendance by Hawkeye fans ranks among the best in the country.

While the Hawkeyes compete with the best in the nation in a variety of sports, Iowa boasts some of the most impressive athletic facilities in the nation, operated by one of the most respected departments.

Several new projects are underway on the Iowa campus. Some of the latest additions to the UI campus are the Roy G. Karro Athletics Hall of Fame and Visitors Center, the Russell and Ann Gerdin Athletic Learning Center and the Hawkeye Tennis and Recreation Center. Construction on the new Campus Recreation and Wellness Center has also begun and is scheduled for a summer, 2010 completion. Ground has also been broken on Iowa's $7 million rowing boathouse. In addition, the UI expects to break ground on a $47 million Carver-Hawkeye Arena renovation project this fall.

Kinnick Stadium received a major up-grading and renovation that was completed just prior to the 2006 season. The $89 million project included the replacing of the south end zone stands and building of a four-level press box that houses 47 guest suites. New scoreboards, video walls, concession stands and new rest rooms were also part of the project.

The graduation rate of Iowa's student-athletes has improved in each of the past 10 years and has consistently ranked above the graduation rate of all UI students. Hawkeye athletes have garnered 76 academic All-America honors since 1992. The 2008-09 school year saw the University of Iowa produce 166 academic all-Big Ten athletes.

Iowa athletes have been recognized as all-Americans in their sport on 253 occasions during the past 17 years, including 15 this past season.

The 2008 Iowa field hockey team won its third-consecutive Big Ten Tournament championship and advanced to the National Semifinals.

The Iowa football team won five of its last six games, including a 31-10 victory over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl.

During the 2008-09 athletic year, the Hawkeyes continued their trend of success on the playing fields and in academic pursuits. Below are some examples of Hawkeyes success last year.

The Hawkeye wrestling team continued its dominance on the mat claiming its 22nd and second-straight NCAA national championship and its 33rd and second-straight Big Ten title. The Hawkeyes earn all-American laurels en route to the team championship.

Iowa football returned to the national scene, winning five of its last six games , including a dominating 31-10 performance over South Carolina in the Outback Bowl. Iowa was the only Big Ten football team to win its bowl game. The return trip to Tampa for the Outback Bowl marked Iowa's fifth January bowl game in seven years. Hawkeye running back, Shonn Greene, earned the Doak Walker Award given to the nation's top running back and was also tabbed as the Big Ten's MVP.

Iowa's field hockey team won its third-consecutive Big Ten Tournament championship and finished third nationally, advancing all the way to the National Semifinals. The Hawkeyes were ranked in the top 10 nationally the entire season and had three players named all-America. A total of 37 Hawkeyes have garnered all-Big Ten accolades under Head Coach Tracey Griesbaum.

The Hawkeye men's golf team surged last season climbing from a national ranking of 152nd in 2008 to 17th in 2009. Iowa placed fifth at the NCAA Southeast Regional and earned its first spot at the NCAA Championships since 1995.

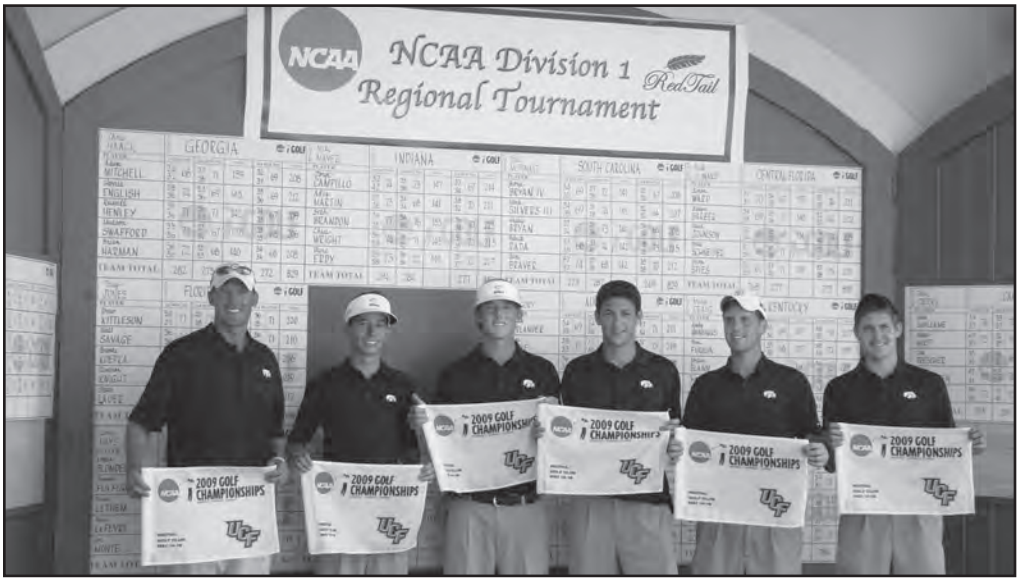
The women's basketball team had another successful season, finishing second and hosting first and second round NCAA Tournaments games in Carver-Hawkeye Arena. All five Hawkeye starters garnered all-Big Ten recognition for the first time in school history. The women's team has advanced to post-season play eight of the nine years under Head Coach Lisa Bluder, who is a two-time Big Ten and WBCA Regional Coach of the Year.

Head Coach Gayle Blevins and the Iowa softball team finished in the upper-division of the Big Ten standings, again, and also competed in the NCAA Tournament. Two Hawkeyes earned first team all-region laurels, while senior pitcher Brittney Weil was also tabbed second team all-America. She became the 16th Iowa softball student-athlete to be named all-America.

Iowa's women's cross country team competed at the NCAA Championships. Racheal Marchand became the third-straight Hawkeye to win the Midwest Regional race and be named the Midwest Region Women's Athlete of the Year.

Gymnast Geoff Reins earned all-America status on vault, while his Hawkeye teammates competed, again, in the NCAA Championships. The women gymnasts were ranked nationally most of the season and hosted the North Central Regional in Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

Whether it's the top-notch athletic or academic performances, the outstanding community and fan support or the impressive facilities, it's easy to understand why Iowa fans everywhere truly believe, "It's great to be a Hawkeye."



The Iowa men's golf team placed fifth at NCAA Regionals and earned its first spot in the NCAA Championships since 1995. At the championships, the Hawkeyes finished 17th.

Since its inception in 1979, Athletics Student Services has evolved from a two-person, academic support service to a broad-based, nationally prominent student support services operation. Its purpose is to offer academic and personal support services that will assist student-athletes in making timely and satisfactory progress toward their degrees and becoming tomorrow's leaders. Athletics Student Services focuses on four important areas - academic counseling and monitoring, educational and support programs, retention programs and compliance services - when working with student-athletes. Following are descriptions of some of the programs, services and opportunities available in those areas.

Gerdin Athletics Learning Center

The $4.6 million Russell A. and Ann Gerdin Athletics Learning Center opened in August of 2003 and gives all Iowa student-athletes a state of the art facility to support their educational goals. The Athletics Learning Center is a multi-level, 20,000 square foot facility which provides a computer center, study areas, classes and meeting places for all Hawkeye student-athletes. The Learning Center features an auditorium that converts into two classrooms, separate study rooms for under and upper-class student-athletes with 28 study carrels, a computer lab, five tutorial rooms, the book loan repository, office space for Iowa's Student Services staff and a display area to recognize the academic accomplishments of Iowa's student-athletes.

Academic Counseling & Monitoring

Athletics coordinators work closely with student-athletes and their university-assigned advisors from the time they arrive on campus until the time they leave the University. Along with focusing on academic planning matters such as goal-setting, plans of study, choosing majors and degree requirements, athletics coordinators also help student-athletes understand NCAA, Big Ten and University academic policies. They also solicit feedback from instructors on academic progress made by student-athletes.

Tutoring

Tutoring is available free of charge to all student-athletes. Tutors, who are post-graduates and teachers, help with course content as well as study strategies and are available in virtually all general education program subjects.

Retention

A full-time staff member directs the retention program, which identifies student-athletes who may need tailored academic assistance and structure, and implements individualized learning plans to help them succeed. Such plans may include daily and weekly planning sessions with athletics coordinators and retention staff, tutoring, study groups, mainstreaming into on-campus services like the writing center, math labs and services for students with learning disabilities.

Transition Seminar

All new student-athletes attend an eight-week transition seminar during the fall semester that is geared toward helping them make the transition from high school to college successfully. Seminar topics include time management skills, learning and study strategies, the culture and rules of the university and Division I Big Ten intercollegiate athletics, and personal leadership and life skills concerning alcohol safety, healthy relationships and intimacy, diversity and inclusion, tolerance, values and character.

CHAMPS/Life Skills

Life skills programs are conducted throughout the year with and for student athletes on quality of life issues critical to personal growth, such as personal accountability, healthy lifestyles, alcohol safety, diversity and gambling.

Minority Enrichment Program

This program offers a culturally supportive environment in which minority student-athletes develop friendships and a support network in the university. A core focus group of students and staff coordinate programs such as guest speakers, holiday celebrations, community service activities with the local neighborhood centers, events with Cultural Centers and networking with minority faculty, staff, professional and business leaders.

Career Guidance & Development

Planning a meaningful career and a fulfilling life is an ongoing process of expanding and narrowing choices, beginning when student-athletes arrive on campus and continuing throughout their college career and lifetime. The professional staff works with other career development professionals on campus to offer individual consultation, career development seminars, workshops, referrals to other campus offices and special events like the Senior Recognition Banquet for graduating student-athletes.

Located near Hillcrest residence hall, the Russell A. and Ann Gerdin Athletics Learning Center is easily accessible to Hawkeye student-athletes.

The Russell A. and Ann Gerdin Athletic Learning Center has plenty of places for Hawkeyes to study.

The Russell A. and Ann Gerdin Athletics Learning Center has large meeting rooms to accommodate student-athletes.

Hawkeye student-athletes can take advantage of a large computer lab in the Russell A. and Ann Gerdin Athletics Learning Center.

"The Gerdin Learning Center is a great place to study and provides numerous options for students who might need help with anything academically. The up-to-date facilities and helpful staff provide student-athletes with the tools to achieve the highest in any major. The advising staff is always there if you need them and will work with you whatever the subject matter. I have found the center to be a helpful place for me to achieve the type of grades I strive for.

- Lindsey Digmann

When student-athletes consider their future, they should consider prospects beyond athletics. A list of all University of Iowa alumni who have distinguished themselves professionally would be difficult to assemble and could never be complete. However, some are truly outstanding in their area of expertise.

Athletic Training & Sports Medicine

Continuing to set the standard in athletic training and Sports Medicine Service, The University of Iowa provides the student-athlete with exemplary medical care. Athletic Training Services is the largest component of the University of Iowa Sports Medicine program. UI Sports Medicine is a multidisciplinary healthcare team housed within the UI Sports Medicine Center, as part of University Hospitals & Clinics (UIHC), striving to provide exemplary everyday care all student-athletes. The team consists of Athletic Training, Orthopaedics, Primary Care, Physician Assistants, Radiology, Physical Therapy, and Nursing. In addition, Athletic Training Services connect student-athletes to UIHC resources and specialty areas. Iowa's staff of 12 full-time licensed athletic trainers and six graduate assistant licensed athletic trainers provide health care services within four athletic training rooms and ancillary facilities, involving injury rehabilitation and prevention programs among other health care services. When injuries and illness occur Iowa's athletic trainers provide treatment and rehabilitation programs to facilitate appropriate return to participation.

Services from the UIHC, among the world's largest university-owned teaching hospitals, support the efforts of the athletic trainers and other specialty sports medicine staff. Located next to Kinnick Stadium, the hospital offers a cutting-edge environment where staff physicians, sports medicine fellows, sports physical therapists, and athletic trainers care for student-athletes and produce successful outcomes. Dedicated research and education result in outstanding care. During the fall of 2009 the Institute for Orthopaedics, Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation (IOSMR) will open to further enhance the care for student athletes and will house the UI Sports Medicine Center.

Athletic trainers form a team with orthopaedic and primary care physicians for every Hawkeye sport. Many of the physicians are fellowship trained in their specialty area and lecture locally, nationally, and around the world. In addition each athlete has access to orthodontists, nutritionists, psychologists, and specialty physicians at the UIHC. Priority access to see physicians and other health care professionals provides expertise for comprehensive health care that returns the student-athlete to practice and competition promptly and safely.

Recreation Building Athletic Training Room

The Recreation Building athletic training room is used by the Hawkeye baseball, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's track and field, and softball teams. It supports health care with modalities (moist hot packs, ultrasound, electrical stimulation, Hivamat, and TENS), Hydroworx polar and thermal plunge pools with therapy jets and massage hoses to aid in self administration of deep tissue massage, cardiovascular equipment (LeMond independent pedal bike with Power Cranks, the Keiser Functional Trainer, Pre-Cor Ellipticals and Adaptive Motion Trainer), and a private physicians office.

The Hawkeye Strength Training Program

The program is designed to develop strength, explosiveness, speed, coordination, balance and flexibility. All qualities are developed through progression of exercises in four phases of training: work capacity - ability to perform work for a prolonged time and recover quickly, strength - ability to exert force, power - ability to exert strength quickly, and speed - ability to move the body in shortest time possible.

The highest level of performance is achieved by training under close supervision, in a year-round program. Improvement is monitored closely through the newest and best technology. Electronic timing devices are used to measure sprints, while a microcomputer device is used to monitor peak velocity and power outputs in weight training movements. With this technological support, the athletes are constantly receiving immediate feedback on their development.

Strength & Conditioning Philosophy

The philosophy of this program consists mainly of two components. The first is to continually develop a scientifically sound program that will maximize strength, power and explosiveness in order to allow the athlete to get the utmost out of their genetic potential, and to reduce the chance of injury. This will primarily be accomplished through the use of ground based free weight exercises and the progressive incorporation of functional movements and plyometrics. The second is to establish a culture which will develop the discipline, character and mental toughness within each athlete and team as a whole so that they are able to make the sacrifices in their training, leave their comfort zone and develop a Championship ATTITUDE. This will encourage them to make the most out of every situation and opportunity given to them in athletics, so that they might know what it is to be fully committed to something in at least one area of their life. When these two converge, they are not only able to reach their full potential; they become champions on and off the playing field.

The Recreation Building Athletic Training Room has excellent facilities to conduct evaluations, treatments, and rehabilitation for the student-athlete.

An Exceptional Choice
Since 1847, The University of Iowa has distinguished itself as a leader among public universities. Today its programs in health, business, engineering, education, law, the arts, communications, and the sciences are known worldwide for their excellence and innovation.

Outstanding Academic Opportunities
Iowa offers degrees in 11 colleges: Business, Dentistry, Education, Engineering, Law, Liberal Arts and Sciences, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Public Health, and the Graduate College. Undergraduates can choose from more than 100 areas of study.

A Fun Place to Call Home
Iowa City is a classic university town where learning and creating truly matter. The city blends the vibrant University campus and the natural beauty of the Iowa River with nearby shopping, entertainment, and residential areas.

Commanding Resources
The University operates one of the largest research library systems in the country. Iowa equips its classrooms and laboratories with the latest in computer technology. Students benefit from this technology-rich environment coupled with the high personal attention of University faculty and staff. Visit the University's web site at www.uiowa.edu to about its multifaceted education, research and service programs.

More Than a Taste of the Arts
Although temporarily displaced from their buildings by a summer 2008 flood, Hancher Auditorium and the UI Museum of Art continue to offer performances, exhibits and special events in alternate venues. Premier works of art are displayed in most University buildings and plazas throughout campus. Students may participate in theater, music, and dance groups.

Time and Space to Play
Every year about 90 percent of Iowa's students make use of the University's recreational facilities. Each season offers a full schedule of intramural and club sports, ranging from rugby, tennis, and golf to volleyball, soccer, and swimming. Individual workouts are a part of many students' daily routines. Students also make use of campus walking and running trails, bikeways, ski trails, golf courses, and canoe and sailboat rentals to relax and enjoy leisure time.

What Distinguishes an Iowa Education?
Success. Iowa's philosophy is that if students meet the entrance requirements, the University is going to do everything it can to help students to graduate. An Iowa degree spells success in the job market, giving students the skills to continue learning and growing throughout their careers.

Excellence. The faculty is stellar. Students are amazed not only at how much they know but at how enthused they are about sharing that knowledge and getting students excited about their subject.

Comfortable class sizes
Here are average class sizes for some typical first-year courses:
Biology: 600 in lecture, 24 in lab; Rhetoric: 22 in class; Calculus: 25 in class; Western Civilization: 260 in lecture, 22 in discussion group; German: 15 in class; First-year seminar: 13 in class

U.S. News & World Report ranked The University of Iowa as the 26th best public university in the nation in 2009.

Additional teaching minors in Coaching, ESL (English as a Second Language), Hearing Impaired, Journalism, and Talented and Gifted. Admission - Review all admission requirements and program guides at www.education.uiowa.edu/tess/

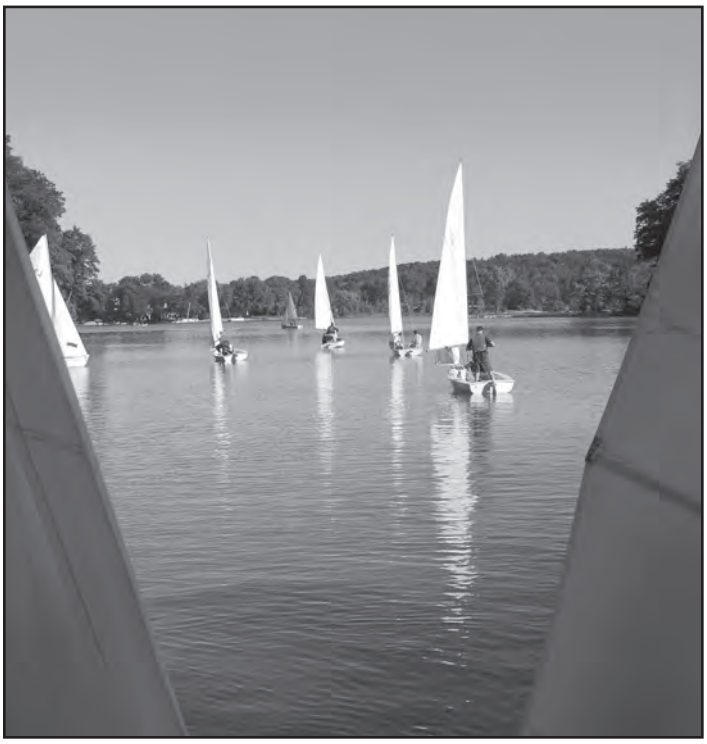
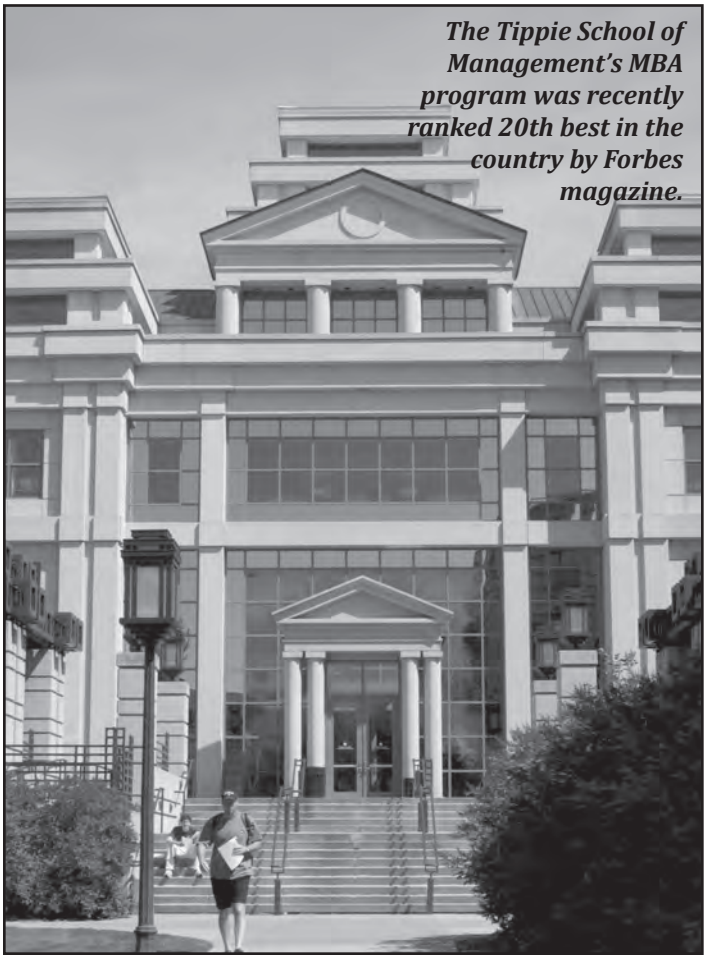
Nursing
Undergraduate Degrees Offered: Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN).
Admission: Students typically complete one year of pre-requisite courses in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and apply for admission during the second semester of the first year. The College of Nursing has competitive admission. The BSN requires three years of study once the student earns admission.

Pharmacy
Professional Degree Offered - Doctor of Pharmacy (PharmD).
Admission - Students must successfully complete required pre-pharmacy course work in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. These requirements may be met in two years but do not guarantee admission. Students must also complete the Pharmacy College Admission Test (PCAT).

Graduate and Professional Degrees
Many student-athletes who have attended The University of Iowa and completed their undergraduate degrees continue their education at the University. Student-athletes who attend graduate or professional school must first complete course work toward a bachelor's degree in their field of study. The University also offers undergraduates the opportunity to participate in research and overseas study programs, as well as internships that will help prepare them for graduate school.





The Tippie School of Management's MBA program was recently ranked 20th best in the country by Forbes magazine.

Housing
Each athletics team has its own rules regarding residence of incoming freshmen. Across the University, about 90 percent of freshmen choose to live on campus in one of the 10 residence halls. Most student-athletes live at least two years on campus.

The residence halls have full-service dining rooms, study lounges, laundry facilities, recreational facilities, vending, and bank machines. Each room has high-speed computer connections for e-mail and Internet access, plus there are wireless networking hot spots in a variety of locations across campus. Iowa also offers wireless networking in 52 buildings and several outdoor areas, providing more than 265 access points across campus.

Safety
- 11:55 p.m. - 2:10 a.m.: Free SafeRide buses take students home Fridays and Saturdays during the fall and spring semesters.
- Special telephones with blue lights are stationed across campus with a direct link to the UI Department of Public Safety.
- University of Iowa Police personnel educate students on safety during summer orientation.
- The Rape Victim Advocacy Program cooperates with the UI Department of Public Safety and participates in Sexual Crime Awareness Week.

Cambus
There are six primary bus routes throughout the Iowa campus. The University Cambus provides over three million free rides to class and to the dorms for students each year. Some routes run seven days a week, and some run until 2:30 a.m. Cambus also operates a specialized transportation service for persons with disabilities.

Health Services
The University of Iowa provides the student-athlete with the most up-to-date and highest-quality medical care available. Students at Iowa can go to Student Health Service, which is open Monday through Friday. The service is supported by a fee paid by all full-time students. It offers students unlimited free office visits (there is a charge for other procedures done in the office, such as blood tests).

Libraries
The University of Iowa Libraries supports the academic achievement of all student-athletes with specialized courses, one-on-one consultations with librarians, 24/7 access to electronic resources through the web site (www.lib.uiowa.edu), and extended hours, which can accommodate complicated practice and travel schedules. UI Librarians help students find answers, whether they're on a web site, in a book, journal, government document, or database. Librarians also plan and teach students how to find, evaluate, and use information from a variety of sources--skills they will use throughout their lives.

Career Planning
Finding and pursuing a career takes careful planning. The Pomerantz Career Center is extremely valuable for student-athletes and can help identify stills that transfer from athletics to the workplace. The program suggests a timeline each student-athlete may follow throughout his or her stay at Iowa. The components of the program include:

- Individualized career advising
- Career education programs
- Summer job/internship opportunities
- Resume and cover letter development
- Preparing for life after college athletics

Computers
There are 26 Instructional Technology Centers all over the campus which are filled with 1,200 computers. These facilities are open at least 50 hours a week. Some are open 24 hours. Also, the Information Arcade in the Main Library provides a variety of specialized computing tools. The Computer Demo Center provides information for students who want to purchase computers and software.

Skills Labs & Support
Many academic departments offer skills labs to help students improve skills necessary to succeed at Iowa, such as writing, speaking, math, science, and foreign language. Assistance with skills such as note-taking, time-management, and test-taking are available through resources such as the College Transition Seminar (a credit-bearing course offered through University College), University Counseling Services, and Athletic Student Services staff.

Cultural Centers
Four cultural centers on campus provide a welcoming setting where students from various cultures can find cultural, academic, and personal support services: the Latino and Native American Cultural Center, the Afro American Cultural Center, the Asian Pacific American Cultural Center, and the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Resource and Education Center.

Iowa City is a diverse, highly cosmopolitan community of 60,000 set in the natural scenic beauty of Iowa's rolling hills and woods along the tree-lined banks of the Iowa River. Iowa City has all the art galleries, ethnic foods, historic architecture and vibrant atmosphere of a much larger city, but with the compactness and friendly feeling of a small town.

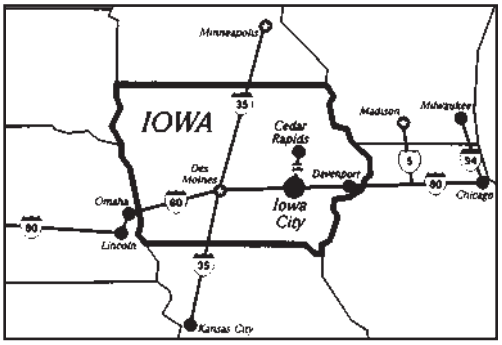
As a place to live, Iowa City keeps winning awards and accolades - Named one of the 10 most enlightened towns in the country by Utne Reader, listed in the book The 100 Best Small Art Towns in America and selected the number-one place to live in the nation by Editor & Publisher magazine.

Economically, businesses such as Rockwell Collins, American College Testing and Procter & Gamble help keep the city booming. In Coralville, a branch office of Geico Auto Insurance has provided many residents with employment opportunities.

Culturally, Iowa City is alive with concerts, art exhibits, readings, plays and art events of all kinds. Located on the University of Iowa campus, Hancher Auditorium is a nationally-known performance center that brings in the best of Broadway, classical and jazz music, dance and other performances. The University of Iowa Theatre Arts department also produces a full schedule of plays each year, featuring the work of student performers and directors. So whether you enjoy the arts as a spectator or as an outlet for your own creativity, Iowa City has the opportunities.

Residents of Iowa City are not only economically and culturally enriched, they also take advantage of the numerous recreational facilities offered around town. The area's more than 30 parks provide opportunities for year-round activities including boating, hiking, swimming, fishing and skiing.

The city's greatest charm, however, remains the sincere friendliness of its citizens, the cosmopolitan atmosphere and the successful partnership built between the community and the University.



Iowa City is located in eastern Iowa and is an easy trip to such cities as Des Moines (the capital of Iowa), Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, and Minneapolis. Also, Cedar Rapids, a city of more than 150,000, is just a short drive north of Iowa City. The Eastern Iowa Airport, which links residents to every major airport in the Midwest, nation and world, is only 20 minutes away.

Old Capitol

One of the most recognizable sites in Iowa City is the gold dome of the Old Capitol which is situated in the heart of downtown. Built in 1840, it is Iowa City's most historic building. The Old Capitol was the site of the first governor inauguration as well as the first six Iowa General Assemblies. It is also where the state's Constitution was drafted. When the capital was moved to Des Moines in 1857, the Old Capitol was dedicated to The University of Iowa, becoming the first building owned by the University.

Coralville Lake

Just north of Iowa City is Coralville Lake, an outdoor recreational area that offers a variety of opportunities for the public. Coralville Lake offers picnic shelters, biking, hiking, fishing, boating, swimming, hunting, camping, snowmobiling, cross country skiing, golf and disc golf.

City Plaza

Located downtown and in walking distance of many of the University's dormitories is the City Plaza. It is a perfect place to sit outside and study or hang out with friends. During the fall, spring and summer months there are concerts and art festivals in the "Ped" Mall.

Coral Ridge Mall

The Coral Ridge Mall is a 1.2-million-square-foot shopping center located just minutes from campus. The center combines a mix of over 120 specialty shops and strong department stores including Dillards, JC Penney, Sears, Target and Younkers. Coral Ridge also offers entertainment features such as an NHL-regulation-sized indoor ice arena, state-of-the-art 10-screen movie theatre and a large carousel along with a 1,000-seat food court with sit-down restaurants. Specialty stores include Abercrombie & Fitch, Barnes & Noble, Gap, Old Navy, Scheels All Sports and Pier 1 Imports.

The Hawkeye Nickname

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago. The name Hawkeye was originally the name of the hero in the fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James Edwards of Fort Madison.

Edwards, editor of the Fort Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawkeye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name, and territorial officials eventually gave it their formal approval.

Herky The Hawkeye

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawkeye was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism at Iowa.

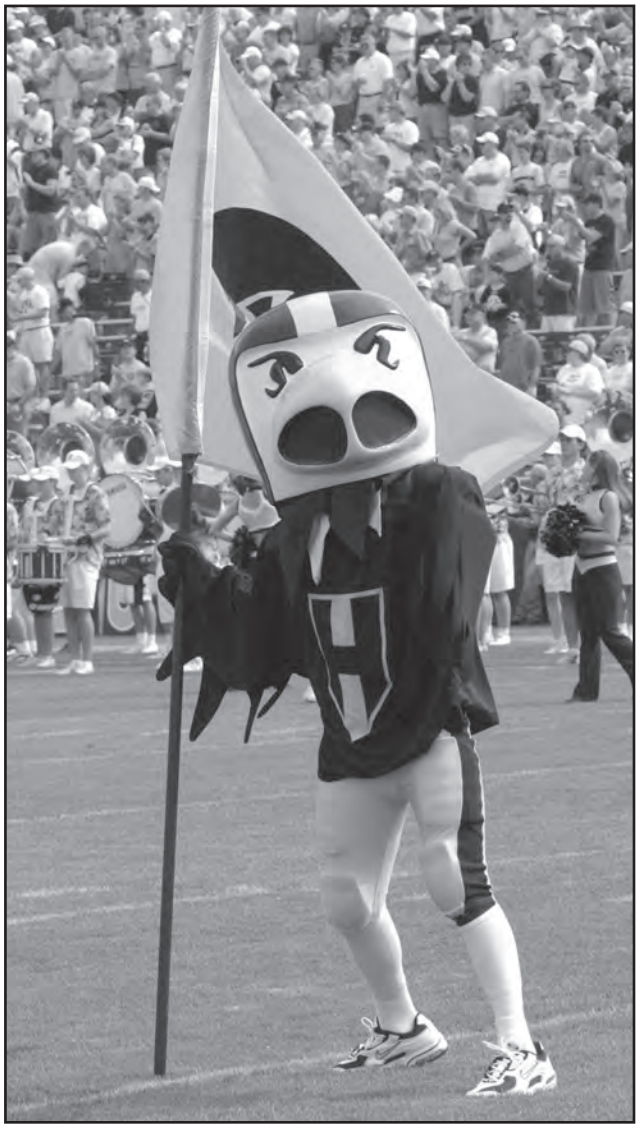
The impish Hawk was an immediate hit and acquired a name through a statewide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth more than 45 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

During the mid-1950s, Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot. Since that time, Herky has been a familiar figure at Iowa athletics events.

School Colors

For 40 years Iowa was without school colors, but in 1887 a group of 50 seniors met on the steps of the Old Capitol to decide what are now the school official colors. They chose Old Gold, the color of Iowa's vast corn fields and Black, the color of the rich soil.



School Fight Song

The Iowa Fight Song was written in 1950 by Mason City, Iowa, native Meredith Willson. Best known as the creator of Broadway's "The Music Man," Willson was awarded a 1963 University of Iowa Alumni Association Distinguished Service Award for "setting the spirit of Iowa to music." The lively cheer is sung hundreds of times during Iowa athletics events the year around.

The word is Fight, Fight, Fight for IOWA
Let every loyal Iowan sing;
The word is Fight, Fight, Fight for IOWA
Until the walls and rafters ring (Go Hawks!)
Come on and cheer, cheer, cheer for IOWA
Come on and cheer until you hear the final gun.
The word is Fight, Fight, Fight for IOWA
Until the game is won.
